

Updates November.

There are news.

My new classes are on their ways out of Europe! Except three.

I'am happy to follows private classes with:

- + Paris Observatory - Lesia
- + ULB Bruxelles
- + Ensta Paris

- + OAD IAU and
- + Open University.

I got many magnetic samples of the moon in October and this is from last nite.

The following steps of the images are going out of the tapes to uses. Oh how much exciting it is. Geez!

I will do a better update serie but it's many ongoing works so one by one things will follows.
